Subject: SCE&G Rate Case (Docket No. 2012-218-E)

Mr. Butler:

Derrick Williamson has pointed out that in the Memorandum of the South Carolina Energy Users Committee ("SCEUC") filed with the Public Service Commission on Thursday, December 13, 2012 contained a scrivener's error. The memorandum on page 6 attributes to Mr. Chriss' prefiled direct testimony his testimony to the effect that the Edison Electric Institute Rate Case Summary reflected an average ROE granted electric utilities for the second quarter 2012 of 9.92%. The paragraph in question is as follows:

Steve W. Chriss testified that according to data from SNL, the average of the 28 reported electric utility rate case ROEs authorized by commissions to electric utilities in 2012 was 9.97%. (Chriss prefiled direct testimony at page 6, ll. 15-19). However, Mr. Chriss also acknowledged that according to the most recent Rate Case Summary in the Second Quarter 2012 Financial Update from the Edison Electric Institute, the average ROE granted electric utilities during the period was 9.92%. (Chriss prefiled direct testimony at page 552, l. 17 - page 554, l. 3).

The correct citation for Mr. Chriss' testimony is to my cross examination found in the Transcript of Record at page 552, l. 17 - page 554, l. 3. The paragraph should correctly read as follows:

Steve W. Chriss testified that according to data from SNL, the average of the 28 reported electric utility rate case ROEs authorized by commissions to electric utilities in 2012 was 9.97%. (Chriss prefiled direct testimony at page 6, ll. 15-19). However, Mr. Chriss also acknowledged that according to the most recent Rate Case Summary in the Second Quarter 2012 Financial Update from the Edison Electric Institute, the average ROE granted electric utilities during the period was 9.92%. (Tr. at page 552, l. 17 - page 554, l. 3).

Please let me know whether this email correcting my memorandum would suffice or whether you would have me resubmit either this page with correction noted or to resubmit the entire Memorandum. Thank you for your consideration of my request.
